HIGHLIGHTS waiting to happen

Munich by Bike

From history-filled old streets to the paths of the Englischer Garten, explore Munich's hidden gems by bicycle.

“Our tour guide was phenomenal; he went above and beyond my expectations. His knowledge of the area and the history behind it was most impressive.”

trip itinerary - 9 days

Jun 10, 2018: Overnight Flight

Depart from the USA.

Jun 11, 2018: Heidelberg

Arrive in Frankfurt and transfer to the delightful town of Heidelberg. (D)

Jun 12, 2018: Lucerne

This morning visit the Heidelberg Castle before driving through the Black Forest, land of fairy tales and cuckoo clocks to Schaffhausen to see the majestic Rhine Falls. Continue to drive toward the charming lakeside town of Lucerne. (B,D)

Jun 13, 2018: Lucerne

Begin your day with an optional trip on the world's steepest cog railway and by cable car up 7,000-foot Mount Pilatus. Otherwise, enjoy a free morning to explore the picturesque streets and squares of Lucerne. An afternoon walking tour shows you the magnificent Lion Monument and the Chapel Bridge. . (B,D)

Jun 14, 2018: Innsbruck

This morning depart Lucerne for Innsbruck the capital of Tyrol stopping first in Vaduz, Liechtenstein to tick another country off your visited list. Afternoon sightseeing of Innsbruck with your ACIS Walking Tour includes the Hofkirche and the Renaissance mausoleum of Emperor Maximilian. (B,D)

Jun 15, 2018: Munich

Today's excursion takes you through the scenic countryside to Ludwig II's fairyland castle of Neuschwanstein. Next see the Wieskirche, a beautiful Rococo church in the meadows. Continue to Munich. You'll receive a 3-day U-Bahn pass to get around this friendly and charming city. (B,D)

Jun 16, 2018: Munich

Begin the day discovering the city's hidden gems during a Munich by bike tour of unique neighborhoods and sights off the beaten path. You'll have time later in the day to explore more of Munich's wonders at your own pace and should be sure to check out the Marienplatz, the historic square in the heart of the city. It's home to the famous 43-bell Glockenspiel, whose colorful mechanical figures reenact prominent moments in Munich's history throughout the day. In the evening, we'll visit the Olympic Park to learn more about the events and history of the 1972 Olympics. (B,D)

Jun 17, 2018: Munich

This morning head out to the Dachau Concentration Camp Memorial, a grim but compelling reminder of Nazi atrocities during World War II. Return to Munich in the afternoon to visit BMW World, a comprehensive museum and headquarters of one of the world's most influential auto makers. We bid Munich auf Wiedersehen with a traditional German sausage dinner tonight. (B,D)

Jun 18, 2018: Departure

Depart for the USA. (B)

This is a preliminary itinerary for your group.

Travel Changes Lives

To learn more, we invite you to read our free ebook, "The Making of a Five-Star Future."
<http://pages.acis.com/ebook>

Can travel make a difference in students' futures? It certainly can and does every single day. In fact, we surveyed 930 former ACIS travelers to see how their tours abroad as young adults influenced their choices in education and paved a way for future careers. Many of them credit travel as a defining moment in their adolescence, and below is a recap of our findings.

education

of those that traveled in middle school or high school continued their studies at the college level compared to the national average of 68% of travelers who went on to college said their travel experience influenced their field of study.

57%

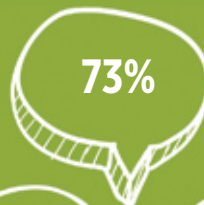

of respondents were motivated to study abroad during college.

language skills

67%

of students continued to study foreign language in college.

of ACIS travelers say they speak one foreign language fairly well compared with 18% of the American population.

personal development

94% felt more independent after their trip.

78% saw an increase in their problem solving skills.

92% noted improvement in their interpersonal skills.

65%

have traveled overseas again since their ACIS trip.
